FRESH IDEAS FOR INFLUENCERS

Utilize this Febuary content calendar to generate fresh ideas, and feel free to adjust the topics and themes to align with the days you typically receive the most engagement. The timing of each post is up to you, and this list can be adapted for use on any social media platform. Check out our detailed list below, and customize the content to your liking!

- Start a weekly or monthly series where you share your favorite books, movies, podcasts, or other forms of entertainment with your audience.
- Collaborate with home decor brands to showcase your interior design style through room makeovers or decor hauls.
- Document your travels to different cities or countries and share travel guides, tips, and recommendations with your followers.
- Host themed parties or gatherings and share party planning tips, DIY decor ideas, and recipes with your audience.
- Partner with beauty and skincare brands to share your skincare routines, makeup tutorials, and product reviews with your followers.
- Create themed lookbooks featuring the latest fashion trends for the upcoming season and share them on your blog or social media platforms.
- Collaborate with fashion brands to showcase their new collections through styled photoshoots or try-on hauls.
- Host a virtual styling session where you provide personalized fashion advice and recommendations to your followers based on their individual preferences.
- Attend fashion shows or industry events and share exclusive behind-the-scenes content with your audience.
- Organize a clothing swap or closet clean-out event where you invite your followers to trade or donate gently used clothing items.
